Another DAAD Scholarship Granted to a Talented ISNM Student

Lübeck, 15 March 2006. The Palestinian student Bashar Al Takrouri of the Class of 2005 is the proud recipient of a DAAD Scholarship Award. He is among the five graduate Palestinian students currently studying abroad who were selected for one of the five scholarships offered for the year 2006.

The award includes a monthly living allowance, health insurance support, liability and accident insurance, small research and study subsidy, and coverage of travel expenses for return from Germany. Basher Al Takrouri is the second ISNM recipient of such a scholarship after Alma Salim of the Class of 2003. A Heinrich-Böll-Foundation Scholarship was granted to the ISNM student of Class of 2004 Mariano Senna da Costa.
