

Prof. Dr. Hasebrook honored as an Official Thesis Opponent at the University of Jyväskylä, Finland

Lübeck, 09.10.2006. Joachim Hasebrook, Professor for E-Learning and Work Design at ISNM, has been invited by the Faculty of Information Technology at the University of Jyväskylä to become an official opponent to a thesis about "Mothers perspective to mobile services" in December, 2006.

The procedure of the university is as follows. First, the thesis is read and evaluated by two inspectors. If they find it acceptable, they give their permission for the work to be published and the university organizes a public thesis defense. After the public examination the doctoral candidate usually arranges a post-doctoral party in honor of the opponent.

More information can be found on:

http://www.jyu.fi/Members/sapaara/thesis/index_html/view?searchterm=thesis .

Besides giving his input on a thesis defense, Prof. Hasebrook will present to the Faculty of Information Technology a brief overview of projects and research at the ISNM International School of New Media at the University of Lübeck.

For further Information please contact

Gyde Clausen
Marketing & Communication
ISNM International School of New Media
at the University of Lübeck gyde.clausen@isnm.de